Dear Brother.

I am in want of the manuscript of my address at Abington July 4th 1840 — Can you not send it to me by the Stage on Sunday — Please do it up securely, and perhaps you had better just some papers with it, to make it a more sizable parcel, not to be so easily lost. — Excuse my pertinacity — but since the loss of the address which I delivered in the Marlboro Hall at the opening of the Convention which formed the Non Resistance Society I am more jealous about such small parcels. —

We had a good meeting at Hingham — did it not we? I long to have Douglass and yourself, or Collins, or some one else come to Scituate. We need rousing up here. —

It was a pity you did not give me the parcel you took from Mrs Chapman — instead of leaving it at the
